General Note on Travel Plans

When booking your train or coach tickets and making travel plans to Nottingham, please remember to allow sufficient time at the airport to collect your luggage and pass through customs and immigration.

Important Note for Travel by National Express Coach

Please note that the National Express have a baggage allowance as follows:

“The luggage allowance for each passenger is a maximum of two medium sized suitcases weighing no more than 20kg each and one piece of hand luggage. Hand luggage must be capable of fitting in the overhead luggage racks or under seats. If you do carry more than this allowance we cannot guarantee that we will be able to accommodate the excess baggage. Space can often be of a premium and we cannot predict what luggage other passengers on the same journey may bring.”

East Midlands Airport

East Midlands Airport is the closest airport to the University Campus. The best ways to reach the University from East Midlands Airport are bus or taxi.

Buses run towards Nottingham City Centre, the University Campus and other destinations from outside the terminal building. The Rainbow 5 service by Trent Barton stops by the University Park Campus www.bartonbuses.co.uk/timetables/times/rainbow5.html. You should ask for the stop 'University West Entrance' – this stop is <500 metres walk from the conference accommodation in Cavendish Hall.

The Nottingham Skylink service runs from the airport to Nottingham City Centre (so a further bus or taxi will be required to reach the University Park Campus – see below). However, this service runs 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. More information can be found at www.skylink.co.uk.

A taxi office can be found inside the terminal building and taxis are available 24 hours a day. The typical cost for a taxi to the University Park Campus should be around £25. More information can be found at <http://www.eastmidlandsairport.com/emaweb.nsf/Content/Taxi>.

Birmingham Airport

If you are arriving at Birmingham Airport, the best way to reach Nottingham is by train (the airport station is called Birmingham International). Timetables and prices for UK trains can be found at www.nationalrail.co.uk. The journey time is typically just under 2 hours, with a change of train at Birmingham New Street station. From Nottingham train station, you can reach the University Campus by bus or taxi (see below).

Coach travel from Birmingham Airport is also possible with National Express (www.nationalexpress.com). The coach journey normally takes around 2.5 hours. The coach will bring you to Nottingham's Broadmarsh Bus Station from where you will need to take a bus or taxi to the University Campus (see below).

Travel by taxi from Birmingham Airport is possible, but the cost of a single journey will be of the order of £50.

Luton Airport

If you are arriving at Luton Airport, you can reach Nottingham by train or coach.

The airport train station is called Luton Airport Parkway and regular busses leave from in front of the airport terminal to take you to this station (journey time approximately 10 minutes). Timetables and prices for UK trains can be found at www.nationalrail.co.uk. The train journey from Luton Airport Parkway to Nottingham is typically just under 2 hours, with a change of train usually (but not always) at Luton Main Station. Once at Nottingham train station, you can reach the University Campus by bus or taxi (see below).

The coach journey from Luton Airport with National Express (www.nationalexpress.com) normally takes a little under 3 hours and will bring you to Nottingham's Broadmarsh Bus Station from where you will need to take a bus or taxi to the University Campus (see below).

Stansted Airport

If you are arriving at Stansted Airport, you can reach Nottingham by train or coach.

From Stansted Airport by train the journey is typically 3 – 3.5 hours. Timetables and prices for UK trains can be found at www.nationalrail.co.uk. Take care when booking a train from Stansted as some services will take you to London first and require you to use the underground before taking a mainline train to Nottingham. Services that do this will take longer and are usually more expensive. Also please note that the train station is located directly in the airport building (out of the front door and down two levels). Once at Nottingham train station, you can reach the University Campus by bus or taxi (see below).

The coach journey from Stansted Airport with National Express (www.nationalexpress.com) takes 4 – 5 hours and will bring you to Nottingham's Broadmarsh Bus Station from where you will need to take a bus or taxi to the University Campus (see below).

Heathrow Airport

If you are arriving at London Heathrow Airport you can reach Nottingham by either train or coach.

To travel by train, the cheapest and simplest way is to first take the London Underground (the Tube) to reach St. Pancras Station on the north side of London. All Heathrow airport terminals have tube stations, which are at the end of the Piccadilly line. You should take the Piccadilly line through the centre of London to the King's Cross / St. Pancras stop. This journey takes 1 hour. Details of the London Tube can be found at www.tfl.gov.uk/tube. You should then allow around 15 minutes to walk from the underground station to the main St. Pancras International terminal, where you can take the train to Nottingham. Trains from St. Pancras to Nottingham normally take a little under 2 hours. Timetables and prices for UK trains can be found at www.nationalrail.co.uk. Alternatively, you can take the Heathrow Express to Paddington underground station and then take the tube (Circle line) to the King's Cross / St. Pancras stop. This option takes around 40 minutes, but is more expensive. From Nottingham train station, you can reach the University Campus by bus or taxi (see below).

To travel from Heathrow Airport by coach is normally cheaper than by train, but the journey will take 3.5 – 4 hours. Details and booking instructions can be found at www.nationalexpress.com. The coach will bring you to Nottingham's Broadmarsh Bus Station from where you will need to take a bus or taxi to the University Campus (see below).

Gatwick Airport

If you are arriving at London Gatwick Airport you can reach Nottingham by either train or coach.

To travel by train, you should take the Gatwick Express to Victoria Station (journey time approximately 30 minutes). You should then take the Victoria underground line to the King's Cross / St. Pancras stop (journey time approximately 10 minutes). Details of the London Tube can be found at www.tfl.gov.uk/tube. You should then allow around 15 minutes to walk from the underground station to the main St. Pancras International terminal, where you can take the train to Nottingham. Trains from St. Pancras to Nottingham normally take a little under 2 hours. Timetables and prices for UK trains can be found at www.nationalrail.co.uk. From Nottingham train station, you can reach the University Campus by bus or taxi (see below).

To travel from Gatwick Airport by coach is normally cheaper than by train, but the journey will take about 5 hours. Details and booking instructions can be found at www.nationalexpress.com. The coach will bring you to Nottingham's Broadmarsh Bus Station from where you will need to take a bus or taxi to the University Campus (see below).

Manchester Airport

If you are arriving at Manchester Airport you can reach Nottingham by either train or coach.

From Manchester Airport, the journey time by train is typically just under 2.5 hours, with a change of train normally at Manchester's Main Station which is called Manchester Piccadilly. Timetables and prices for UK trains can be found at www.nationalrail.co.uk. From Nottingham train station, you can reach the University Campus by bus or taxi (see below).

The coach journey from Manchester Airport with National Express (www.nationalexpress.com) normally takes around 4 hours and will bring you to Nottingham's Broadmarsh Bus Station from where you will need to take a bus or taxi to the University Campus (see below).

Nottingham Train Station & Broadmarsh Bus Station

Nottingham's Main Train Station and Broadmarsh Bus Station (where you will arrive if you travel by National Express Coach) are situated on the south side of the city centre. More details about the train station (location, facilities, etc.) can be found online at www.nationalrail.co.uk/stations/not/details.html. The train and bus stations are about 200 metres apart and are located as shown on the map below. From both the bus and train stations, you can reach the University campus by either bus or taxi.

Taxis

At the train station, taxis are normally available at all times from in front of the main station entrance. If you have arrived at the Broadmarsh Bus Station there are normally a number of taxis available on the road outside the station on Carrington Street (see above map). Alternatively, you can take the short walk to the train station where you will find a taxi. A single journey to the University Campus by taxi will take about 10 minutes and should cost less than £10. You should ask the taxi driver to take you to the University Park Campus of the University of Nottingham and once on the Campus to either Cavendish Hall (for the accommodation) or the Pope Building (for the conference sessions).

Bus Services

If you decide to take a bus, there are two main bus companies in Nottingham: Nottingham City Transport (NCT) and Trent Barton. Please be aware that you must have the exact change to travel on an NCT bus. The Trent Barton buses give change.

The nearest busses that will take you to the University Campus leave from Nottingham's Broadmarsh Bus Station where the most convenient bus service to take is the Rainbow 5. This service stops by the University Campus. You should ask for the stop 'University West Entrance' – this stop is <500 metres walk from the conference accommodation in Cavendish Hall (and is situated between the 'Dunkirk' and 'Beeston Bus Station' stops on the timetable found at www.bartonbuses.co.uk/timetables/times/rainbow5.html).

The NCT buses #13 and #14 also pass the University Campus, but the nearest stop is 'Paddling Pool' and this is then ~1000 metres walk to Cavendish Hall. These two NCT bus services leave from stop C1 on Collin Street which is outside the Broadmarsh Bus Station. Their timetables and route maps can be found at <http://www.nctx.co.uk/Timetables/Timetables.htm>

If you are arriving once the conference has started and wish to come direct from the bus to the conference sessions then all of the above busses are still applicable, but you should get off at the 'University South Entrance' and then make your way to the Pope Building (see campus map).

Driving to the Campus & Car Parking

If you plan to drive to the campus, you can find directions to the University Park Campus online at www.nottingham.ac.uk/about/campuses/maps.php.
